

THE ORFF ECHO MISSION STATEMENT

The Orff Echo is the national peer-reviewed quarterly journal and philosophical voice of the American Orff-Schulwerk Association. Our mission is to demonstrate the value of Orff Schulwerk and promote its widespread use; to support the professional development of our members; and to inspire and advocate for the creative potential of all learners.

Submission Guidelines, Checklist, and General Information

AOSA, through The Orff Echo, is always interested in original research and informative, lively articles covering all aspects of Orff Schulwerk. In addition, each issue presents several articles around an editorial feature topic (published in the editorial calendar in each issue).

If you have a good idea, don't hesitate. The editor and Editorial Board members want to hear from you! Use the following checklist to help you develop your manuscript, and the general information about publishing in The Orff Echo for additional questions you may have.

CHECKLIST: CREATING YOUR MANUSCRIPT

- Familiarize yourself with the Echo by reading several back issues.
- SUBMIT A QUERY: Send a brief, half-page query letter or e-mail outlining your article idea to an issue coordinator (see a recent copy of the Echo).
 - Remember, issues are in production as much as a year in advance.
 - Include a short biography (75 words) about your experience in your profession.

Once the coordinator has accepted your idea, he or she will provide the Echo template and all permission/release forms to you. Write your manuscript in the template, working with your coordinator. When you are ready to submit your manuscript, follow these guidelines:

- Using the Echo template provided, format in Word 97 or later: 1" margins, 12-point Times Roman type, and double-spaced.
 - Feature articles: about 2,200 words, including references and bibliographies
 - Reviews: children's books (400-600 words); professional books (750-850 words)
 - Manuscripts cannot be returned
- Review the APA style guide and match your style to it.
 - The Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA style guide) uses in-text references rather than endnotes.
 - Note formatting of references in the style guide.
 - A quick summary of the guidelines is available at www.apastyle.org/.

Note: The Echo does not accept Wikipedia as a reference/citation source.

Email your preliminary manuscript to your coordinator.

- You and the coordinator will refine the content as necessary.

You may complete the following while you and the coordinator refine your manuscript. If you have trouble with any of these steps, please contact the editor.

Organize electronic versions of all illustrations and photos.

- Please ensure photos are at least 300 dpi (600 dpi is better) and in PNG or JPEG formats. Do not manipulate or crop digital photos.
 - Ask photo owners to complete and sign an Illustration Art Photo Permission 9-2014 form, and include it with your manuscript. Complete this form if you took the photos.
 - Identify children by first names only in all captions.
 - Write a caption for each item, and indicate within the manuscript where it should appear (“See Figure 1”). Do not insert items into the manuscript itself.
- Submit digital musical examples from Sibelius or Finale in either PDF or JPEG file format (Example: maryhadalittlelamb.jpg). Use the highest resolution possible (600 dpi is good but 1200 dpi is best).

Obtain permission/parental permission to use any photos of people.

- Children’s Photos: Ask parents or guardians to complete and sign the Photo Release for Minor_Universal, and include it with your manuscript.
- Adults’ Photos: Ask each subject to complete and sign the Photo Release Adult_Universal form, and include it with your manuscript.

Obtain written permissions for copyrighted material or extensive quotes.

- Copyright “fair use” includes the right to quote briefly, for scholarly use, complete musical examples.
- Figures, tables, complete musical examples, or longer quotations require written permission from the author or publisher to reprint that material. Ask copyright owners to complete and sign the Illustration Art Photo Permission 9-2014, and include it with your manuscript.

Submit all permissions with your final manuscript to the coordinator.

The coordinator will email your manuscript, along with all completed and signed permissions/releases, to the editor. The editor will contact you with questions and comments before publication, and will email the Author Agreement to you for your completion and signature.

GENERAL INFORMATION: THINGS TO NOTE AND ETHICAL STANDARDS

What We Publish

See the document, Echo-What We Publish, for detailed information on features, columns, and other content published in the journal. The Echo does not publish lesson plans or original songs or rhythms.

Resources (Children's and Professional)

Reviews of resources are assigned by the review editors. If you are interested in writing a review, please contact the relevant review editor. In your cover note, explain your particular field of expertise. If you are connected personally or professionally to the book's author, please indicate this in your cover note and in the review.

Reviews will be listed separately in the Table of Contents with the name of the reviewer.

Reviews of teaching materials are encouraged, including books, CDs/DVDs, apps, and other products. Resources created by an editorial board member will not be reviewed.

Accuracy and Completeness

Copy should be accurate. The Orff Echo cannot assume responsibility for the accuracy of facts, figures, or names in submitted copy. Before submitting material, verify the spelling of names, titles, countries, and institutions. Use full names of organizations and agencies when first mentioned and provide abbreviations or acronyms in parentheses following. Abbreviate thereafter. Verify titles and quotations from printed sources. Confirm that references are correct and complete.

Editorial Policies

All articles submitted to The Orff Echo are subject to editing for clarity, grammar, and length. Headlines may be rewritten by the editor.

Copyright and Permissions

Writers published in The Orff Echo sign an agreement that grants AOSA, the publisher, permission to publish the work in both print and electronic forms. Writers whose material appears in The Orff Echo are free to use the material elsewhere (however, contact the editor to obtain a proper credit line to use). Although The Orff Echo is copyrighted, AOSA generally grants requests for permission to reprint material appearing in the journal and usually does not charge a fee for such permission.

Ethical Standards

When sending your manuscript, include a statement guaranteeing that the manuscript has not been published or submitted elsewhere, nor is currently under consideration by another publication. If your manuscript has been published elsewhere or is currently under consideration by another publication, please inform us of that in writing with your submittal. Promoting the writer's books, workshops, other publications, instruments, etc. in the manuscript is not permitted. Derogatory statements regarding other professionals or professional organizations are not permitted.

Ethical Review Policies

The editor and the Editorial Board adhere to specific policies when reviewing submitted materials.

The Orff Echo cannot guarantee publication of any manuscript. All unsolicited manuscripts, however, are carefully reviewed by the Editorial Board. The board members make recommendations concerning acceptance or rejection.

The editor or the editorial coordinator acknowledges each manuscript received. One will notify the writer of acceptance or rejection in a timely manner, no more than six months from the time of receipt.

The editorial coordinator will work with the writer to discuss major changes to the article prior to its submittal to the editor for publication.

Final editorial decisions rest with the editor.
